Thought for the Week:

Think well. Speak well. Do well. These three things, through the mercy of God, will make a man go to Heaven.

St. Camillus de Lellis

Reflection of the Gospel

Jesus always teaches us the good news of our salvation, not destruction. He teaches us to spread optimism instead. He tells us that in a world where there is so much hatred, suffering and tears, our communities should be signs of hope and sources of love, joy and peace. Preachers who still threaten disaster misinterpret the message of Christ. What they say does not reflect the Gospel message. The Word of Jesus announces happiness and salvation for all. Fear has never convinced anybody to follow the way that leads to life. "Of that day or hour, no one knows, nor the Son, but only the Father" Jesus said. Only the Father knows the time of the establishment of the Kingdom of God, but there are signs that show us the time is near. We are invited to be alert like a farmer, who knows how to "read" the signs that mark the coming of a new season. By www.paulinesafrica.org
