World Day of Migrants and Refugees: Planning has begun for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees which will be celebrated on January 18, 2015. The theme for the World Day of Migrants 2015 is “Church Without Frontiers, Mother to All”. As we continue to prepare for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ during this time of Advent, let us be ever mindful that Joseph, Mary and Jesus were migrants and refugees themselves. In our preparation for the birth of Jesus, let us pray for an open heart to discerning the call to the Sponsorship of Refugees in our world today that so desperately need our help, just as our Holy Family needed the help of others when they fled their home in fear of their own lives. If the Holy Spirit moves you to do so, please contact Susan Nye-Brothers, SAH Coordinator for the Diocese of Charlottetown, at (902)- 368-8005 to speak further about how you might be able to join others in assisting our brothers and sisters across the globe to safety here in PEI. Let’s join together, with our Mother Mary, on January 18th to pray for all Migrants. God called ordinary people to assist the Holy Family in their migration... and He’s calling us to that same openness of heart and home for migrants in our world today.
