Reflection

I believe that the Eucharistic Adoration is something given especially for our time, a time where our eyes travel everywhere through little screens or big screens, seeing good and bad things at the same time, eyes that need bifocals quicker than before and still not seeing what is better for our life.

I believe that 40 years ago with the Charismatic Renewal, the Holy Spirit gave us the opportunity for a renewal of the faith and zeal in the Church. We experienced the power of the Spirit with the charisms we needed for our time for a new evangelization.

When we hear the word “evangelization” we think going out like the Apostles bringing the good news. It is important and still today. But we can’t go on the street if we first do not know the Lord, not in with our mind but with our heart. “Master, where do you live”. “Come and see”. We know the place where he lives. Adoration is a place for a special encounter with Jesus where He can be seen, and where He transforming us in the secret of our heart.

I believe that one of the fruits of the Charismatic Renewal is the need to know Jesus and to adore him, to be like Mary at Jesus’s feet before the great proclamation of Easter.

Life is made of a lot of challenges. One of them is about being faithful to God. Eucharistic Adoration is a place and a time to strengthen our relationship with the Lord where I can come to the Lord and be with him. “Come and see” the Lord is waiting for you.” Come as you are. And you will receive what you need. Every Tuesday He is there exposed waiting for you.
