“Cast your net to the right side”

3rd Sunday of Easter

...Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach: but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Children, you have no fish, have you?” They answered him, “No.” He said to them, “cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. ...

Vocation Sunday: The Catholic Church all over the world is celebrating Vocation Sunday on May 12th. This is a special time for parishes in the Diocese of Charlottetown to foster a culture of vocations for the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life. Pope Francis, in his message for the 2018 World Day of Vocations, emphasized that it is at the loving initiative of God, and by His personal encounter with each of us, that one is called. “Even amid these troubled times, the mystery of the Incarnation reminds us that God continually comes to encounter us. He is God-with-us, who walks along the often-dusty paths of our lives. He knows our anxious longing for love and he calls us to joy. In the diversity and the uniqueness of each and every vocation, personal and ecclesial, there is a need to listen, discern and live this word that calls to us from on high and, while enabling us to develop our talents, makes us instruments of salvation in the world and guides us to full happiness.” Therefore, on this Vocation Sunday, you PARENTS and friends can promote vocation awareness and encourage young people to ask the question: “To what vocation in life is God calling me?” If the young people or adult feel that they are called by God, they can approach their parents, parish priests, religious Sisters or the Director of Vocations of the Diocese (at 902-388-0858 or 3saintsunit@gmail.com) to help to listen to God’s Call.

Cursillo of Cursillos, 2019 Halifax, NS: “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.” Rom 15:13. We are asking that you join your prayers with ours as we prepare for the 2019 Cursillo of Cursillos taking place in Halifax from June 27-30. We are blessed that the three amigos from Mallorca (Miguel Sureda, Juan Aumatell and Manuel Fernandez) will be present to share with us their love and knowledge of the movement. The three amigos have lived Cursillo with our founder, know our charism and lovingly share this knowledge with Cursillo leaders through this Cursillo of Cursillos.

Prayer for the 2019

Canadian Cursillo of Cursillos

Loving Father, we thank You and praise You for the unfailing knowledge of Your love for every one of Your sons and daughters, and for the mission entrusted to us to bring the Good News of Your love to all we meet through the gift of Cursillo. We ask You for a fresh outpouring of Your Holy Spirit on those who will gather in Your name in Halifax from June 27th to 30th that all will have hearts ready to receive, ears ready to hear, and that those who are entrusted with sharing their experience of the charism of Cursillo will be gifted with the words that will help with the journey from head to heart. We entrust this Cursillo of Cursillos to You, Lord, and ask that everything that is not of You be silenced and removed from this gathering of pilgrims. We bring all of this to You through Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen. Eduardo Bonnin, intercede for us. St. Paul, patron of Cursillo, pray for us.
