Jesus speaks about the temple

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down."

They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?"

And Jesus said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he! And, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them..."

Intention of the Holy Father, Pope Francis for November 2016

Universal: Countries Receiving Refugees - That the countries which take in a great number of displaced persons and refugees may find support for their efforts which show solidarity.

Evangelization: Collaboration of Priests and Laity- That within parishes, priests and lay people may collaborate in service to the community without giving in to the temptation of discouragement.
