Thought for the Week

If you believe what you like in the gospels, and reject what you don't like, it is not the gospel you believe, but yourself.
 --Saint Augustine

Candle intentions for the week for No: 103

Reflection

Our gospel is about a judge and a widow. On one side we have the judge who does not really care. On the other side, we have this widow who is really in need. And the judge who has the power to change things does not want to do anything.

When we think of a judge, we think of condemnation. How many times, we see God that way. God is seen as a judge. And because He is a judge what we expect is condemnation. A judge is someone who is able to give the right decision. He has no fear of anybody. He is only looking for what is just.

God is judge but God also loves what is right. With God, if there is a condemnation, there is also a chance. God does not punish for the sake of punishment. God is looking for a movement of the heart. God wants reaction more than punishment; a relationship with him more than anything else. Saint Therese of Lisieux understood that because she based all her spirituality on one attitude: trust. This is the way to go to God even if we look at him as a judge. If we are confident in God's love and mercy, we should not be afraid to go to him. And we know as well that He will listen because even before we ask, God knows. The only thing we have to do is to trust.
