"Who do you say that I am?"

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

... Jesus called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to become my follower, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake, and for the sake of the Gospel, will save it."

The Gospel of Mark

Proud of our Christian Heritage

Our new campaign, "Proud of our Christian Heritage" is going well and with your continuing support we expect to pay cash for the paint and labour of the beautification of the exterior of our church.

We invite you to take part in this campaign by donating $50 for a can of paint in memory of a deceased loved one. All donations are being recorded in our book at the back of the church and will be kept on display after the project is finished.

To purchase a can of paint, please visit or call the parish rectory at 882-2622 or contact Jean at 882-3479. Thank you for your support.

Quotes from Pope Francis' Encyclical "Laudato Si" - "Our Common Home"

Pope Francis on the Environment:

Humanity is called to recognize the need for changes of lifestyle, production and consumption, in order to combat this warming or at least the human causes which produce or aggravate it. It is true that there are other factors (such as volcanic activity, variations in the earth's orbit and axis, the solar cycle), yet a number of scientific studies indicate that most global warming in recent decades is due to the great concentration of greenhouse gases (carbon dioxide, methane, nitrogen oxides and others) released mainly as a result of human activity.

Support for Syrian refugees: Due to an outpouring of prayer and support for Syrian refugees, many people on PEI have been asking how they can assist with the Syrian Refugee crisis. One very tangible way to help is by making a financial donation to the Diocesan Refugee Fund. You can either donate through your local parish or mail your donation to the Diocese of Charlottetown, P.O. Box 907, Charlottetown, PE C1A 7L9. Your donation will be earmarked to assist in aiding Syrian refugees specifically. For information on other ways you can become more involved with Refugee Sponsorship, please contact Susan Nye-Brothers, Diocesan Coordinator for Refugee Sponsorship, at (902) 368-8005 ext. 228.

Intention of the Holy Father, Pope Francis for September

Universal: That opportunities for education and employment may increase for all young people.

Evangelization: That catechists may give witness by living in a way consistent with the faith they proclaim.
