Thought for the Week

In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks.

Reflection

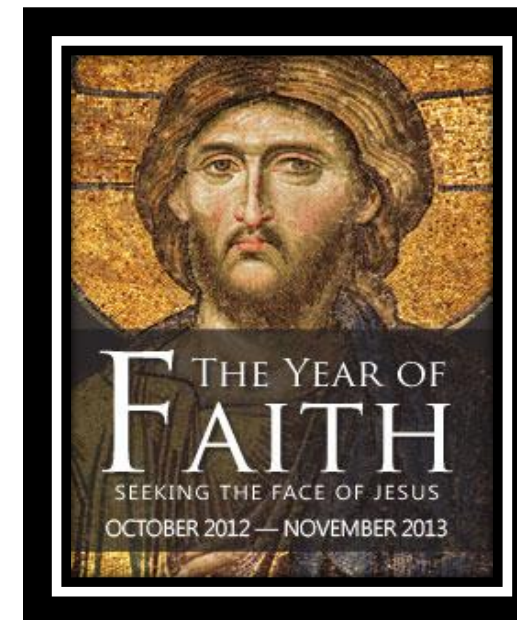

Life is a battle. And the principal battle we have to face is to keep in touch with God and not be absorbed by the spirit of the world. The world gives us what we need quickly in order to have satisfaction (almost) without delay. With God, it is different. It is not always "right away" and you do not always feel something. The most important is not what we feel but the fact that we can be certain that God gives us what we need every day. He does not stop giving us his blessings even during the night for it is written in the Psalm, "indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep". We need to see God overlooking at us, watching us all the time. He gives us what we need to stand and to do what we are supposed to do. That's why we thank God. This grace is our life. And this life is for us the mean to receive more and more God himself. Mystery of God's love. If you want to experience it, do not forget to thank God.

- ❖ Grand Opening: New Confessional! No better heat, no better seat, but better space to feel comfortable in order to unload our burdens and to receive God's peace through his mercy. Open every Friday from 6:15 to 6:45 pm and anytime. A priest is never too busy to give the most beautiful blessing. The confessional is like the priority line at the airport: if you are faithful to it, you will not have to worry about the waiting time at the end of time. "The confession of evil works is the first beginning of good works." St. Augustine

- ❖ Diocesan Youth Choir to be Created: It is exciting to announce that a decision has been taken to develop a Diocesan Youth Choir. This will be open to interested school-age children and will be under the direction of Ms. Meghan Bowen, of St. Paul's in Summerside. This Youth Ministry initiative is seen as an excellent opportunity to bring joyfulness and liveliness to liturgical celebrations as well as provide a strong witness to other youth.
