Thought for the Week

22nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone wants to become my follower, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit anyone to gain the whole world but forfeit their life?"

Matthew 16.24-26

by Pope Francis

"The dignity of each human person and the pursuit of the common good are concerns which ought to shape all economic policies.... Business is a vocation, and a noble vocation, provided that those engaged in it see themselves challenged by a greater meaning in life: this will enable them to truly serve the common good by striving to increase the goods of this world and make them more accessible to all."
