26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

After Jesus had finished teaching the disciples, John said to him, “Teacher, We saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” But Jesus said, “Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.” The Gospel of Mark

Proud of our Christian Heritage

Our new campaign, “Proud of our Christian Heritage” is going well and with your continuing support we expect to pay cash for the paint and labor of the beautification of the exterior of our church.

We invite you to take part in this campaign by donating $50 for a can of paint in memory of a deceased loved one. All donations are being recorded in our book at the back of the church and will be kept on display after the project is finished.

To purchase a can of paint, please visit or call the parish rectory at 882-2622 or contact Jean at 882-3479. Thank you for your support.

Quotes from Pope Francis’ Encyclical “Laudato Si” - “Our Common Home”

Pope Francis on the Environment:

The poor are hurt the most by climate change. There has been a tragic rise in the number of migrants seeking to flee from the growing poverty caused by environmental degradation. They are not recognized by international conventions as refugees; they bear the loss of the lives they have left behind without enjoying any legal protection whatsoever. Sadly, there is widespread indifference to such suffering, which is even now taking place throughout the world.

Thank you! Fr. Roy Shea was overwhelmed that the evening of Aug. 23rd was so successful. The grand total was $2,900.00. Fr. Roy extended his thanks to all who attended, who donated items, the great musicians and to the Knights of Columbus for sponsoring. We can all be guaranteed that Fr. Roy will keep us in his prayers.

Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada:

Why is there such a collection? Every year, the Bishops of Canada make an appeal for financial assistance to support their work and the work of each diocese by means of the Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada. The President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB), the Most Reverend Paul-André Durocher, Archbishop of Gatineau, has described this Collection as “an opportunity to all the faithful to help their dioceses collaborate in financing the regional episcopal assemblies (the Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario, and the West) and also the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB). These associations support the Bishops in their local ministry and in working together on issues of common concern.” Any additional revenues raised help the diocese support its own diocesan pastoral programs and other activities. The CCCB is the national assembly of the Catholic Bishops in Canada, and includes the Bishops of the Eastern Catholic Churches. The Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada will be held September 26 and 27, 2015. Through your contribution to the Collection, you too can collaborate with the Bishops in their ministry to teach, sanctify and govern.

Reminders

Please note: The 40 days of prayer & fasting for LIFE began on Sept. 23 and ends on Nov. 1. Please join us in prayer for the unborn babies who are in danger of being aborted.

Support for Syrian refugees: Due to an outpouring of prayer and support for Syrian refugees, many people on PEI have been asking how they can assist with the Syrian Refugee crisis. One very tangible way to help is by making a financial donation to the Diocesan Refugee Fund. Your donation will be earmarked to assist in aiding Syrian refugees specifically. For information contact Susan Nye-Brothers, Diocesan Coordinator for Refugee Sponsorship, at (902) 368-8005 ext. 228
