Feast of All Saints

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountains and after he sat down, his disciples came to him, Then he began to speak and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.”
 The Gospel of Matthew

Proud of our Christian Heritage

Our new campaign, “Proud of our Christian Heritage” is going well and with your continuing support we expect to pay cash for the paint and labor of the beautification of the exterior of our church.

We invite you to take part in this campaign by donating $50 for a can of paint in memory of a deceased loved one. All donations are being recorded in our book at the back of the church and will be kept on display after the project is finished.

To purchase a can of paint, please visit or call the parish rectory at 882-2622 or contact Jean at 882-3479. Thank you for your support.

Quotes from Pope Francis’ Encyclical “Laudato Si” - “Our Common Home”

Pope Francis on the Environment:

“Creation has a broader meaning than “nature”. In the Judaeo-Christian tradition, the word “creation” has a broader meaning than “nature”, for it has to do with God’s loving plan in which every creature has its own value and significance. Nature is usually seen as a system which can be studied, understood and controlled, whereas creation can only be understood as a gift from the outstretched hand of the Father of all, and as a reality illuminated by the love which calls us together into universal communion
