30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart: get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.

Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go, your faith has made you well."

Immediately, the man regained his sight and followed Jesus on the way, The Gospel of Mark

Proud of our Christian Heritage

Our new campaign, "Proud of our Christian Heritage" is going well and with your continuing support we expect to pay cash for the paint and labor of the beautification of the exterior of our church.

We invite you to take part in this campaign by donating $50 for a can of paint in memory of a deceased loved one. All donations are being recorded in our book at the back of the church and will be kept on display after the project is finished.

To purchase a can of paint, please visit or call the parish rectory at 882-2622 or contact Jean at 882-3479. Thank you for your support.

Quotes from Pope Francis' Encyclical "Laudato Si" - "Our Common Home"

Pope Francis on the Environment: .
The Church encourages honest, scientific debate.
On many concrete questions, the Church has no reason to offer a definitive opinion, she knows that honest debate must be encouraged among experts, while respecting divergent views. Here I would state that the Church does not presume to settle scientific questions or to replace politics, But I am concerned to encourage an honest and open debate so that particular interests or ideologies will not prejudice the common good.
