Pope Francis raises the Book of Gospels

Book of Gospels

While the Book of Gospels leads us into our celebration of the Eucharist, it is not carried out at the end. It remains at the ambo or in another appropriate place of respect as we leave the church. What are we to make of this? The absence of the Book of Gospels from the Recessional Procession reminds us that it is not a book that carries the Gospel from the church into the week ahead. Together, we—the assembly of believers—are the means through whom the Good News of Jesus Christ is borne into the world. How wonderful for us to be reminded of that when we are sent forth with the commission, “Go, and proclaim the Gospel of the Lord,” and we accept the mandate with our response, “Thanks be to God!”

Proud of our Christian Heritage

Our new campaign, “Proud of our Christian Heritage” is going well and with your continuing support we expect to pay cash for the paint and labour of the beautification of the exterior of our church.

We invite you to take part in this campaign by donating $50 for a can of paint in memory of a deceased loved one. All donations are being recorded in our book at the back of the church and will be kept on display after the project is finished.

To purchase a can of paint, please visit or call the parish rectory at 882-2622 or contact Jean at 882-3479. Thank you for your support.

Quotes from Pope Francis’ Encyclical “Laudato Si” - “Our Common Home”

Pope Francis on the Environment:
“No creature is superfluous, all of creation speaks of God’s love”.

Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not make us overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous. The entire material universe speaks of God’s love, his boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God. (84)
