26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, John told Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us."

Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him" because "whoever is not against us is for us". (Mark 9: 38-40)

"For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward." (Mark 9: 47)

Healing is a Journey...

Recently both parish communities of Immaculate Conception and St. Simon & St. Jude have been overburdened with grief. For this reason, we offer you this reflection:

We've all experienced wounds. Wounds hurt deeply. God's love not only comforts and redeems, it heals.

As first step of the journey, may we acknowledge our pain. May we stop covering it up, rationalizing it, defending it, excusing it and ignoring it. May we be blessed with courage to admit and deal with our treacherous pain and deep sorrow. Whatever our hurts may be, may we hope and pray that through a mature faith in the Risen Christ :

- He will raise us up out of the pit into a fresh encounter with God...
- He will lead us to reclaim the joy and peace of God's presence...
- He will enlarge our vision of God's purpose for our lives that is greater than our own thoughts...
- And we will discover the redemptive power of God's love and be healed of our hurts.
