Knock and the door will open

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel, Christ our Brother teaches His disciples and us how to pray by giving us the "Our Father." What follows in the rest of the Gospel shows us how powerful and effective this prayer is.

All scriptural material above calls us to witness to God's great, deep amazing LOVE to and for the whole world, and especially including ourselves. The Prayer over the Offerings in today's Mass clearly shows the abundance of God's gifts and the working of God's grace in our lives (especially see the readings). And do not overlook the fact that the abundance of God's gifts and the working of God's grace also include the Eucharist we celebrate today!

One of the important take-always from today's Liturgy/Mass is that God really and always answers prayer; so pray and pray and pray and pray
